

Model: SR500

Description: Speed Reduction Ramp (Cable)

Speed Reduction Ramp (Cable) are manufactured from heavy-duty P.V.C. An ideal method of protecting a temporary cable or hose or reducing traffic speed. Should be laid as alternate black and yellow sections and bolted down.

Safety Requirement: Ramp warning signs should be positioned to warn road users of the obstruction and to Approach with Minimum Speed.

Supplied as 500mm x 500mm x 70/75mm high sections (Black yellow)

48mm x 33mm aperture suitable for temporary cable protection

1mtr of ramp weights 30kg

Material composition: The ramp is composed of synthetic rubber (underlayer) and natural rubber (upper layer, yellow part)

Allowable axial weight is 12.5 T or less

Specification

Length 500mm

Width 500mm

Height (centre) 70/75mm

Weight 15.00kg Per Section